The Pleasures of Deadline Addiction

I am not a procrastinator. Really. I'm not.

I'm deadline oriented, which is an entirely different thing.

A procrastinator postpones projects.... And postpones projects.... And postpones projects ... indefinitely.

A deadline-oriented person, on the other hand, postpones projects.... And postpones projects ... until just before they're due. Then—in a flurry of activity—she finishes up the last few details, pulls everything together, says a quiet "Ta da!" to herself, and meets the deadline.

A lot of editors and writers are almost addicted to deadlines. And it's kind of a chicken-and-egg situation. I'm not sure if the character trait existed first and pushed us into the communications field, or if being in the communications field caused us to develop the character trait. Either way, it's like we can't function creatively without an impending deadline. It's like we crave the adrenalin rush that comes with barely beating the clock on a project.

Of course, one person's adrenalin rush is another person's annoyance. So if we deadline-oriented folks don't want to alienate everyone around us (and if we wish to remain employed) we learn to modify our behavior a bit. We set fake deadlines for ourselves. We learn that it's OK to actually complete a project a week before it's due. We learn to maintain a steady, reasonable work pace rather than relying on that deadline-induced creative energy burst.

Most of the time.

Sometimes, though, we just can't help ourselves, and we revert. We wait. We postpone. We put off. And then—at the eleventh hour—inspiration strikes! We find exactly the right words to finish the paragraph. We come up with exactly the right headline. We decide that everything is just right. No. Just a minute. We need a different word ... there. Now everything is just right. Ta da! We beat the deadline.

Four times a year, I steal the opportunity to indulge the deadline-addicted portion of my soul. I start by saying to Maureen, our art director, "If we run out of pages, I don't have to write an

OVER THE DESKTOP

Over the Desktop column this time."

She gives me a look. She knows better.

A few weeks later, I try again. "You know," I casually remark, "I'm kind of out of ideas. We could skip Over the Desktop in this issue."

This time, Maureen shakes her head a little bit. She's been hearing this same story for five years. She knows better.

In another few weeks, it is too late for me to try to weasel out of writing an Over the Desktop. The deadline is looming. I sit at my desk and stare at the computer. I stare at the current issue's pagination schedule. I swivel my chair and stare out the window.

And then—inspiration strikes! The words and the sentences and the paragraphs come together. I write and write and rewrite. (I generally struggle with the headline, but that, too, is eventually finished.)

I have beaten the deadline. Barely! And I am happy.

Loyally,

Liz Appel Rinck, Γ/Butler
Editor

Leadership to Begin a New Millennium

Grand Convention in June of 2000 will give our Fraternity the opportunity to select leaders to begin the new millennium. What a grand opportunity for a new beginning: a new year, a new decade, a new century, a new millennium, a new time! And what a challenge: to be innovative enough to remain viable in the new time while maintaining the values which have sustained us through the old times.

For the past 130 years, Kappa Alpha Theta has been blessed with leaders who especially exemplified one of our original values, that of service. They have given generously of their time, talents, energy, and love. They have been willing to risk, dare, and serve in order to empower other women. In their tradition and continuing their legacy of strength, Thetas of the twenty-first century are challenged to volunteer themselves for service on our Grand Council. Such service is above ego-gratification and personal agendas, seeking instead to preserve values, encourage growth, and foster the skills of others.

Such service is a rare privilege. It is also a serious responsibility. While there is excellent support from the professionals on the Headquarters staff and from the volunteer network of district and special officers, the final responsibility for the direction and operation of our Fraternity rests with the seven members of our Grand Council. To carry that responsibility, Council members must be self-starters who are able to take criticism, are willing to stretch and take risks, and are good team players and strong decision makers. They must be able to remember that it's not possible to please "all the people all the time" and that the good of the whole should be the primary standard.

At Convention, nine women—five college chapter presidents and four alumnae chapter presidents—will be elected by their districts to serve as the Nominating Committee. During the course of the Convention, meetings will be held to determine a slate of the most qualified women to lead Kappa Alpha Theta in the 2000-2002 biennium. The committee will read, study, and discuss the recommendations, comments, and other information provided by those available to serve, their colleagues, their supervisors, and their friends.

Information requested from those available includes their personal vision for the future of the Fraternity and their ideas, plans, and platforms if they are elected. I served on Council for four terms and was available once when I was not elected. Not being asked for my personal vision for the Fraternity or for my goals, ideas for new programs, prior experience which I felt qualified me for service, or even which positions I preferred, helped me see the significance of such information in making good slating choices. I am delighted that the process now includes not only asking for such insight, but also sharing that and all other information with the full Nominating Committee.

The nominating process as it unfolds during Convention is often frustrating and sometimes political. This year, the committee's bywords will be openness, integrity, and sisterhood. I challenge everyone who will participate in the process—those who write recommendations, those who make themselves available, those who serve on the Committee—to keep in mind the three aims of our Fraternity. They have stood the test of time and are a proven foundation for approaching the future.

Nominating Committee deliberations are private. Information received is held in confidence by the chairman, secretary, and committee members and is destroyed at the conclusion of deliberations. Each Theta submitting information can feel secure in the knowledge that she can share her honest evaluations and thoughts. In that light, I encourage anyone interested in providing substantive information for the process to do so.

Consider qualified Thetas you wish to recommend. Letters, questions, comments, and concerns are certainly welcome at any time. A Grand Council nominating form was included in the Winter 1999-2000 issue of The Magazine and was posted on the Fraternity website on March 15.

Service to Kappa Alpha Theta continues to be a personal privilege to me. I have never been able to say no to Theta! Thus I am excited about the opportunity to serve in a new role as Nominating Committee chairman. I pledge to you that the committee will work hard to prepare a slate of the most qualified women to lead us into the new time! And I urge you to participate in the process.

NEW SITE NEWS

Taking inspiration from the terrific new Theta website and having just volunteered to serve as the permanent alumnae secretary for our chapter at Duke, I've set up a new website for Beta Rho alumnae: www.DukeAlumni.com/cc/kappaalpha-theta. This was accomplished with help from the Duke Alumni Office.

I invite all Beta Rho alumnae to visit and register on the site, to leave a message with news or suggestions for additions to the site, and to help us locate "lost" members.

I would also love to have help identifying the Duke alumnae in the great reunion picture on page 37 of the Autumn 1999 issue of The Kappa Alpha Theta Magazine.

APPRECIATION

I am writing this letter on behalf of my grandmother, Jane Gauslin Flanner, who was initiated on October 9, 1933, into the Alpha Psi Chapter at Lawrence. After a long battle with congestive heart failure, grandma unfortunately passed away on June 29, 1999.

Theta was only one of many bonds that we shared. In September of 1994, I pledged Theta at Wisconsin. Grandma just happened to be in town that weekend, so my mother brought her to the house, and we surprised her with the wonderful news. She was beside herself. Throughout my four years at Psi Chapter, we shared many milestones, including my initiation. Every winter, we would attend the Milwaukee Founder's Day luncheon together. Even after I graduated, we battled the cold and I would drive in for the day to take her downtown for our special day together.

Theta was a very important part of my grandmother's life. She was so extremely proud to be associated with such a fabulous organization. After I pledged, she called all of her Theta friends and boasted of the good news. Just a few years ago, she received her 50-year pin, which I now have, tucked next to my grandmother's Theta badge that she gave me on my initiation day.

I am extremely lucky to have had such a wonderful woman for a grandmother. Writing this letter does not nearly do her justice, but we would love for it to appear in The Magazine. I feel that it is the least I can do for someone who touched my life so profoundly.

Kappa Alpha Theta lost a longtime member with the death of Marcia Renfrew Utley, Alpha Chi/Purdue, on October 21, 1999. Marcia was living in Knoxville, Tenn., where she had served as president and active member of the alumnae club for the past 11 years. Prior to living in Knoxville, Marcia lived in Pittsburgh, where she was president and treasurer of the alumnae chapter, facility corporation board president for the Gamma Theta Chapter at Carnegie-Mellon, and involved in many other events and activities for Theta. Battle Creek and Flint, in Michigan, were Marcia's homes before Pittsburgh, and she was also an active Theta there.

In addition to her many years of devoted service to alumnae clubs and chapters, Marcia was most of all an enthusiastic and wonderful person! At Theta events, we loved hearing stories of her years in Theta. One of Marcia's proudest moments was when she received her 50-year pin at Founders Day in 1995. Marcia Utley was very proud to be a Theta, and those of us who knew her were glad she was "Theta for a lifetime"!

THANK YOU

When I received my copy of the Winter 1999-2000 issue of The Kappa Alpha Theta Magazine, I was so excited to find a photo I had submitted included in the Snapshots section. I know you must have had many pictures to choose from, and I just wanted you to know that I'm very appreciative that you were able to choose mine.

Editor's Note: We are always delighted to receive submissions (both with and without photos) for the Snapshots section, and we will publish as many as we have space for. Please send submissions to Liz Rinck, Kappa Alpha Theta, 8740 Founders Rd., Indianapolis, IN 46268.

I want to thank you so much for the wonderful website. I have so much fun surfing through it (It is very user-friendly!), and with the discussion area I can look forward to keeping in touch with Thetas everywhere. Here at Xi Chapter we are developing our own website, and once it's completed, Thetas can begin to learn about us, just as we learned about other chapters over the Internet.

Thanks a million!

VIA E-MAIL

I think the new features on the website are outstanding. One thing that would help me as social chairman of my chapter is to be able to submit forms to my CDP and chapter adviser via E-mail. I already correspond with these ladies via E-mail, but we still have to use "snail mail" to send forms. E-mailing them would make my life easier and would save a great deal of paper as well.

Editor's Note: Some chapter forms must be submitted as hard copy because they must be signed by an officer or adviser. As part of our ongoing website development, we are planning to adopt those forms that do not require a signature so that they may be submitted electronically.

A Refuge for Refugees

Karen Koning AbuZayd, A/DePauw

By Katherine Whan, EΔ/Dickinson

Snipers. Checkpoints. Refugees. Chances are, you've never encountered any of these things on the job. I know I certainly haven't—which is part of why I was so impressed when I met with Karen Koning AbuZayd, Alpha/DePauw, at her Washington, DC, office in December.

As regional representative to the United States and the Caribbean for the United Nations High Commission for Refugees (UNHCR), AbuZayd has been to countries that most of us will never see—places that aren't known as tourist destinations but as war zones. She has risked her own safety to help refugees in Somalia, Bosnia, Sierra Leone, and many other places over her 18 years with UNHCR.

The United Nations High Commission for Refugees was created in 1951 to help resettle Europeans left homeless after World War II. However, as the number of refugees continued to grow around the globe, UNHCR's mandate was extended, and today the agency helps nearly 23 million people in more than 140 countries.

Karen AbuZayd is in charge of everything that goes on with UNHCR in the US and 12 Caribbean countries. She works with the US government, often testifying and giving briefings to Congress. She represents the agency on the speaking circuit and manages domestic legal issues for people seeking political asylum in the US or the Caribbean. It's a pretty high-profile position, but AbuZayd has more than paid her dues with years of hands-on experience.

She started with UNHCR in 1981 in Khartoum, Sudan, while on summer break from teaching political science at Juba University. Her first job with the agency was helping refugees from Ethiopia get university scholarships in Egypt. "Now," says AbuZayd with a note of irony, "We are simply trying to get everyone through primary school, since that is a basic human right." Tours of duty in Sudan, Namibia and Sierra Leone followed as AbuZayd continued to help refugees repatriate, resettle, or flee—whatever they needed at the time.

Then, from 1993 to 1995, AbuZayd was chief of UNHCR's operations in Sarejevo. Working in a war zone is a relatively new development for UNHCR staff, she says. "The humanitarian environment is changing. These days, 46 percent of our duty stations are considered too dangerous for us to bring our families along."

AbuZayd describes a Sarejevo that was in some ways very much like what we saw on the news. She describes the fear of waiting inside a tank while the soldiers outside negotiate the vehicle's passage through a checkpoint. Her daily attire included a flak jacket and a helmet, and she recalls speeding down certain streets in order to evade sniper fire.

But she also talks about the elderly Bosnian woman whose flat she lived in. Although the windows had been blown out and covered with plastic, the woman still served breakfast on a silver tray each morning and changed the artwork on her walls every week. And although the landlady spoke no English and AbuZayd spoke no Bosnian, they managed to communicate enough to become friends, and they keep in touch to this day.

So how does a Theta from Canfield, Ohio, end up in a job that takes her to war-torn Sarejevo? According to AbuZayd, her horizons opened wide when she left her hometown to attend DePauw University in 1959. Although she was pursuing a nursing degree, she became deeply interested in the Middle East and its politics, and by the time she graduated, she knew that the operating room was not where she wanted to be. So while working as a nurse in Chicago, AbuZayd began to take graduate courses, and then she moved to Montreal to enter a full-time program at McGill University's Institute of Islamic Studies. That is where she met her husband, a native of Sudan.

After graduate school, the AbuZayds moved to Uganda, where they taught political science at the University of Makerere. War broke out, and they were forced to move to Sudan, where they helped to found the University of Juba. AbuZayd's husband, the retired vice-chancellor of Omdurman Ahlia University, is still based in Sudan, and the couple has two adult sons who have grown up dividing their time between Africa, Europe, and North America.

When asked what she would like to tell her fellow Thetas about refugees, AbuZayd has a ready answer.

"It is important to realize that refugees make a contribution to society. They are desperately trying to start new lives, and many will be solid citizens in their adopted countries. We should welcome them." AbuZayd points out that if the Pilgrims came to the US today, under current laws, they would probably be in detention centers.

As we conclude our interview, AbuZayd's assistant pops into the room, and I am introduced as a Theta magazine reporter. "I still can't believe you were in a sorority!" the assistant exclaims, apparently influenced by stereotypical ideas of Greek life. AbuZayd and I just laugh, because we both know the truth—Theta doesn't turn out any shrinking violets.

Smiles Across the Miles

Jennifer Martin, BΓ/Colorado State

By Erin Kretzschmar, AM/Missouri

Someday soon, Jennifer Martin, Beta Gamma/Colorado State, will earn a living as a dentist. So far, the only payments she has received for the dental work she's performed have been the smiles of Honduran children.

Martin, a senior in dental school at the University of Nebraska, has traveled to Honduras three times in the last two years to provide free dental services to people in the villages of Nuevo Octotepeque and Santa Rosa. Through a cooperation of efforts between the University of Nebraska and the Christian Foundation for the Children and Aged (CFC) in Kansas City, Mo., a group of dental students traveled to Latin America to offer dental care to CFC-sponsored children.

A Nebraska alumnus, Dr. Hans Detlafs, MD, treats children there year-round. Detlafs sought the help of his alma mater when he discovered the children's severe oral hygiene problems, which are due to inadequate diets.

So, in August of 1998 and 1999, Martin and other Nebraska dental students spent two weeks in Honduras. Armed with donated supplies—toothbrushes, penicillin, Tylenol—and borrowed instruments from the university, they gave preventative and restorative care to more than 1,000 patients during the 1998 trip alone.

Over the course of both trips, the dental students extracted more than 1,400 teeth, sealed more than 4,300 teeth, and filled 2,410 teeth of children in Nuevo Octotepeque. Since the people of Nuevo Octotepeque survive without continuous electricity, so did Martin and her comrades. Unreliable electricity meant no drills, so they used hand instruments.

"We're the only dental care these kids receive, so we did what we could for them—we cleaned their teeth, placed sealants, and filled teeth," Martin says.

The students also saw patients in the village of Pinasco, which was accessible only by foot. Pinasco has no running water, providing yet another challenge to the students, as well as a thankful outlook for Martin. "I come home after each trip and think, I have so much," Martin explains. "It puts a new perspective on life and gives you a lot of gratitude for what you have, like a hot shower or a sink where you can brush your teeth."

Martin and her fellow students also learn to give of themselves financially for the trips. The university sponsors the missions through donated supplies, and CFC provides their lodging and ground transportation in Honduras, but each student is responsible for the cost of his/her plane ticket.

However, her experiences and the people she meets far outweigh the trip's financial burdens. One patient, Melvin, stands out in Martin's mind. "Melvin had lost all his molars; they had been pulled previously. Melvin was just crying and crying, but once we were able to get through to him that we were going to help him and that it wouldn't hurt like before, he was fine."

Another Honduran patient—Hector—saw Martin on both occasions. "I remembered Hector from the first time when I saw him again in '99," Martin recalls. "It was nice to have some continuity and to see some of the same patients again."

Martin's most memorable patient is 13-year-old Karla, whom she met this past August. "Karla's family lives in a house that is made of mud and sticks, and they raise chickens and ducks and geese in their kitchen.

"I have a great relationship with Karla, and I love spending time with her," Martin says. During Martin's most recent trip to Honduras (in Dec. of 1999), Karla stayed the night in a hotel in Santa Rosa with her.

"Again, knowing Karla makes me thankful for what I have at home," Martin says. "By helping her and her family, I feel like I'm learning so much more than dental skills."

In December, Martin and a professor spent five days at an orphanage in Santa Rosa, where they began research on a project that will take her back to Honduras twice in the next two years. The pair established a test group that will maintain a similar diet; within the group, they sealed half of the teeth in the children's mouths. Over the next two years, Martin will return to monitor the effects of the oral hygiene and diet on the sealed teeth vs. the unsealed teeth.

For now, being a student occupies Martin's time. She graduates in May as a doctor of dental science and then hopes to enroll in a pediatric residency program.

Will the future find her establishing a dentist's office in Nuevo Octotepeque? "My friends tease me that my biggest clientele is currently in Honduras, but I don't think I could live there all the time," Martin says. "There's a big need for dental care in third-world countries, where there aren't resources available to them. But there are dentists trying to make livings in Honduras, and I don't want to take business away from them."

"Still, there are the expectations of the sponsored children, and we need to help provide that."

Martin credits her Theta experiences in helping to prepare her for volunteer work in Honduras. "Socially, intellectually and morally—I'd say Honduras touched on all these areas," she says. "Serving in an underprivileged country was a challenge, and I took so much more away from it than just what I learned in my dental work."

"It was a huge undertaking, but the first 'Gracias!' made it all worthwhile!"

The Gift of Days

Nancy Shank Pedder, AX/Purdue

By Melanie Rosen Brown, EΩ/Stetson

While finding a breast lump is a horror many women have bravely faced, few women have had to battle breast cancer and undergo a heart transplant in the space of just seven months. Nancy Shank Pedder, Alpha Chi/Purdue, has, however, overcome each of these medical obstacles and is now thriving, counting the gifts she has received rather than the trials she has endured.

Her story, while both unique and tragic, is remarkable in that her determination to overcome the seemingly insurmountable was driven by an inner strength and supported and encouraged by a powerful support system of family and friends in which Theta played a role. Pedder's life provides a wealth of inspiration for anyone struggling with obstacles and adversities.

Pedder led an active life up until the discovery of a lump in her breast and the subsequent removal of first the lump and then her breast in September 1988. This was followed by chemotherapy and the loss of her hair. "For me, that was worse than losing a breast, though I knew the hair would grow again," she states in her book about her experiences. "I think it is easier to camouflage the loss of a breast, whereas hair loss is right there for everyone to see, and each time you look in the mirror you are reminded of your predicament." The effects of the chemotherapy for Pedder, however, were just beginning.

Nancy Shank Pedder, left, speaks highly of her AX/Purdue "Lunch Bunch" friends in San Francisco. "My friends who are Thetas have proven to be my very best friends," Pedder fondly states.

The celebration following Pedder's final round of chemotherapy was cut short due to her being rushed back to the hospital. There it was discovered that Pedder's heart had been damaged by the chemotherapy to the point that her only hope for survival was a transplant. "It happened so fast and was so totally unexpected that I didn't really have time to focus my thoughts," Pedder recalls. "The hardest part that I recall at the time was coping with the continuous bad news. And waiting for the results of the endless tests; the news was always bad." The odds of chemotherapy causing this reaction were only one in a million; the chances of Pedder's recovery were nearly as grim. Eventually, the hopes and prayers of Pedder's family and friends were answered when she received her new heart on April 30, 1989.

Pedder had led a contented life until September 1988. She was born in Indiana in the 1940s, the oldest of six children, and had a "peaceful, happy childhood." Activities revolved around school, church, and family. Her college years were spent at Purdue, where she majored in consumer and family sciences. After four years of reveling in Theta, football games, the Sweet Shop, a variety of extracurricular activities, and studies, Pedder graduated with many fond memories and a desire for new adventures.

This desire led her to California, where she found both a career in personnel and her husband, Bill, whom she married in 1968. Pedder left the work force following the birth of their two children, Shannon, now 27, and Brendan, 25. Activities such as painting and exercising, as well as her dedication to fostering her relationships with her large family and many friends, filled Pedder's days until her life itself nearly stopped just over ten years ago.

Pedder recalls that while she was growing up her father frequently said, "Every day is a gift."

Today, Pedder is busy and determined to celebrate each day. Speaking by phone after a Christmas cruise of the Panama Canal, Pedder assures me of her good health. "I'm doing very well. In fact, I do everything I ever did before and probably more."

Pedder's determination to take advantage of each day and her gratitude for the special gift of a heart from a stranger and his family has resulted in her dedication to educating the public about organ donation. "I have been speaking publicly about organ donation, trying to educate about the importance and need for organs. People are just waiting," she explains, "for a chance at life."

Her first speaking engagement was shortly after her release from the hospital and was for a class at her daughter's high school. What began as a one-time appearance has increased to a full-time commitment, taking Pedder further and further from home. "I am now finding that my speaking engagements take almost all of my time," she says. Yet, in spite of her busy itinerary, Pedder proudly relates that she was asked by the Palo Alto alumnae group to be their Founders Day speaker this year—an honor she eagerly anticipated.

"When you pledge Theta, you hear that 'Theta is for a lifetime.' In my case, and I believe in the case of my Theta friends, this has certainly proven to be true," recalls Pedder. For more than eight years, Pedder has socialized with a group of women fondly nicknamed "The Lunch Bunch."

These friends, all Thetas from Purdue living in the San Francisco area, meet several times each year for lunch and fellowship. "My friends who are Thetas have proven to be my very best friends," Pedder fondly states. "During my illness, they were always the first to show up at my doorstep with encouraging words and a casserole in hand."

Pedder's seven-month battle against breast cancer and subsequent heart disease are documented in her highly acclaimed book A Matter of Heart: One Woman's Triumph Over Breast Cancer and a Heart Transplant (Saturn Press, 1998). While her book certainly does achieve its goal of educating readers about the importance of both organ donation and breast self-examinations, it also does much more. A Matter of Heart is a deeply inspirational story for anyone grappling with the challenges of life as it illustrates the strength of the human spirit. This inner strength, coupled with the support of dear family and friends, can overcome even the worst adversities. Whether the battle is medical, spiritual, or of another form, Pedder's engrossing story offers encouragement, possibilities, and hope.

1999 Annual Report

JULY 1, 1998-JUNE 30, 1999

This past year has been one of many successes as our new team structure continues to thrive, nurturing new volunteers and our alumnae and college chapters, as well as serving as a model for our NPC friends in our ever-changing Greek experience.

We continue to be challenged on college campuses and asked to redefine ourselves and our relevance. We have stood firm for our principles while realizing that we must cooperate with our host institutions. We continue to stress that we are proponents of academic excellence, friendship, community involvement, and values and ethics. These values become increasingly important in light of our societal problems. We are in the fortunate position of being able to look after our members, to provide educational training for them, and to surround each member with a support group that is, I believe, unequaled in any other organization she might choose to join.

These are challenging times for Greek organizations and their members, both collegians and alumnae. Our mission must be supported by all of us in order to preserve the Greek experience. I know we Thetas are up to the challenge.

Loyally,

Helen E. Woodward

CHAPTER COMPUTERS

Recognizing that computers have become a necessary and pervasive part of everyday life, Grand Council voted to furnish each Kappa Alpha Theta college chapter with a computer and a suite of software programs. Before the 1999 DLCs began in January, each chapter had received a computer, a printer, and five Windows-compatible software programs. Chapter Manager, in use by chapters since 1988, is a finance program that provides necessary controls and documentation; Rush Manager accurately tracks membership prospects throughout the rush process; Office 97 includes E-mail capabilities; Front Page enables chapters to create websites with a consistent, professional appearance and to link to the Fraternity's official website; a virus detector helps chapters protect their computers and information.

The $500,000 cost of this tangible demonstration of Theta's commitment to its college chapters was funded entirely from prior years' surpluses. The computers will not only allow Theta chapters to function effectively but will also provide learning opportunities for our members. One chapter president wrote, "This generous gift will make such a difference in the management of our chapter's finances, programs, and rush events. Thank you very much!"

The financial information for the Fraternity, however, pertains to fiscal 1998-99 (July 1, 1998-June 30, 1999). And readers should also note that some scholarship and Talking About Alcohol information pertains to the 1998-99 academic year. Financial information for the Foundation begins on page 51.*

NEW COLONY

Loyola Marymount University

In August, the Fraternity celebrated the establishment of the Zeta Omega colony at Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles. LMU is a private institution of approximately 4000 students, located on a bluff overlooking Marina del Rey and the Pacific Ocean. Initial autumn recruitment efforts led to the pledging of more than 50 members, with formal recruitment and installation scheduled for the early months of 2000.

OFFICERS' CONFERENCE AND DISTRICT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCES

The 1999 District Leadership Conferences (DLCs) were held in Atlanta; Baltimore; Boston; Dallas; Indianapolis; Kansas City; Ontario, California; and Seattle in January and February. Created in 1997, the multiple conferences gave college chapter officers and members, alumnae chapter and club members, and advisory board and facility corporation board members access to timely leadership training with little inconvenience and low cost. Concurrent workshops focused on chapter management, finances, member recruitment, and administration; specific programming for alumnae and facility corporation boards was also scheduled.

Conference participants and Fraternity officers judged the DLCs a success; throughout 1999, plans for nine conferences in early 2000 were solidified.

More than 100 international, district, and special officers attended the annual Kappa Alpha Theta Officers' Conference in June in Indianapolis. The weekend gathering was designed to provide opportunities for professional training, committee meetings, idea sharing, and planning for the future. The nine district teams also met to address district-specific issues.

EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP CONSULTANTS

A visit from an educational leadership consultant (ELC) is a positive opportunity for a chapter to learn new ideas, gain valuable insights, and make a new friend. As ambassadors of the Fraternity, ELCs offer support, guidance, and new ideas to college chapter members, advisory and facility corporation boards, and campus administrators. They educate chapters on programming and policies, as well as on current issues facing today's college women. In 1998-99, eleven ELCs made more than 300 college chapter visits, traveling to each chapter at least once. The ELC program is partially funded by the Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation.

CHAPTER SUPPORT

In each of the Fraternity's nine districts, a team of between 10 and 14 volunteer officers works together to provide a strong network of support for local college and alumnae chapters, alumnae clubs, college chapter advisers, and facility corporation personnel. Team members have expertise in Panhellenic matters, recruitment, finance, risk management, and alumnae issues. In addition to providing "on call" assistance, they also conduct training sessions and organize workshops at District Leadership Conferences and Grand Convention.

New college chapters and chapters dealing with difficult issues will receive extensive attention from the officer team in their districts and will also be frequently visited by one or more educational leadership consultants (ELC). An ELC is based at each new college chapter for two years.

SERVICE TO NPC

At the 56th Biennial Session of the National Panhellenic Conference (NPC), Lissa Bradford, Alpha Eta/Vanderbilt, concluded her tenure as chairman of NPC for the 1997-99 biennium. Bradford's service marked only the third time a Theta has served as chairman. (L. Pearle Green Phi/Pacific, served as NPC chairman twice.) And because NPC executive offices are held by representatives of its 26 member groups on a rotating basis, it will be more than fifty years before Theta will again hold the chairmanship.

Highlights of the 1997-99 biennium for NPC included an increase in college Panhellenics achieving above the all-sorority average; Something of Value, a values-based risk-management program; the reorganization of the NPC central office personnel structure; a total review, reorganization, and reaffirmation of the Unanimous Agreements; and Research Initiatives II and III. Of her chairmanship, Bradford said, "Seeing the support of the NPC member groups for the 11 NIC fraternities that have committed to alcohol-free facilities has been one of the greatest sources of gratification for me personally during my term as chairman."

SCHOLARSHIP

In 1999, the Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation awarded more than $354,220 through 154 graduate and undergraduate scholarships. Foundation trustees were thrilled to announce that this amount breaks all previous Theta scholarship records, as well as records of all other men's and women's Greek organizations.

During the 1998-99 academic year, 1238 undergraduate members achieved straight As for at least one school term. The following college chapters achieved the number-one scholarship ranking on their campuses during 1998-99.

LEADERSHAPE

Fifty-six Theta collegians had the opportunity to experience the LeaderShape Institute, thanks to leadership grants that were made possible by annual fund contributions to the Foundation. The LeaderShape Institute has earned a glowing national reputation for providing an intensive and energizing program designed to produce extraordinary results in participant's organizations while also instilling a high level of integrity. In just six days, participants learn how to create a vision, build teams, implement action plans, and communicate with care and impact. One woman wrote that it was an "... indescribable experience that taught me the essence of leadership and personal development skills."

TALKING ABOUT ALCOHOL

Talking About Alcohol (TAA) teaches Thetas how to make low-risk drinking choices. The program offers nonjudgmental, relevant risk-reduction information. The goal of TAA is not simply to increase alcohol awareness but also to provide information needed to avoid alcohol-related health and impairment problems for a lifetime.

During the 1998-99 academic year, more than 1,000 collegians participated in TAA, and 17 Thetas served as trained volunteer facilitators. TAA is partially funded by the Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation.

THE KAPPA ALPHA THETA MAGAZINE

Each year, the College Fraternity Editor's Association (CFEA) honors achievement in fraternal publications. Awards of excellence are given in many categories, and member organizations may enter one item in each category. Entries are judged by professionals in the fields of journalism and publishing.

"The Language of the Eyes," by Susan Stephan Holloway (The Magazine, Spring 1998), was recognized with a first place award in the profile article category during CFEA's 1999 conference.

CASA

The CASA/Theta relationship continued to grow and strengthen in 1999. The Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation provided $60,000 in funding for National CASA; these funds provided education, training and recruitment support for volunteers, including publications, website development, their toll-free phone number, and the Program Director of the Year Award. Additionally, the Foundation gave more than $220,000 in local program grants, which were made possible through the fund-raising efforts of our alumnae and college chapters.

Every day, 8,600

children are reported as abused, neglected, or abandoned and 500 are placed in foster care or institutions. Theta's contributions are helping to provide volunteer advocates for these children and to place them more quickly in a safe, permanent environment.

FRIENDSHIP FUND

In 1999, the Foundation received more than $27,000 in gifts from Thetas contributing to the Friendship Fund at their Founders Day celebrations. These thoughtful donations helped to provide Friendship Fund gifts of almost $19,500 to members experiencing extreme financial hardship due to serious or terminal illness, job loss, natural disaster, and other devastating occurrences. The Friendship Fund, which was established in 1926, continues to tangibly demonstrate the love and concern we have for one another as Theta sisters.

SERVICES ENDORSED BY KAΘ

Burr Patterson & Auld Company is the official jeweler of the Fraternity. They manufacture all official and accessory jewelry. Royalties from this association average just over $80,000.

The Right Connection, doing business as The Pansy Peddler, has been our third-party merchandise vendor for four years. Royalties in 1999 were in excess of $5,700.

In 1999, First Tennessee Bank assumed the management of the Fraternity's affinity charge card. Coverdell Company will continue to provide insurance services. Royalties from these two programs average $35,000.

The Fraternity also works with National Collegiate to provide members with the KAΘ credit phone card and with QSP to provide discount magazine subscriptions. ■

Mary Ann Walton Lee first opened her eyes to the world of dance at age four. She remembers the glimpse as pure magic—a captivating spell of music, motion, and expression that opened the curtain on a lifelong passion.

"The third floor ballroom of this gorgeous old mansion had shining hardwood floors, murals, and angels on the ceiling," says Lee, 53, painting a picture of her first recital. "I watched the girls twirling, leaping, and frolicking on stage in their Ginny gowns and I thought, 'This is what I want to do.'"

Every step since has led Lee, Delta Lambda/Utah, toward her present role as director of the Virginia Tanner asked me if I was ready for this," says Lee of her succession to program director. "I told her I was, and I assured her that she had given the entire staff the gifts we needed. We had all grown up in her family of dance.

"For a while, I wondered if I could really fill her shoes. But then I realized I didn't have the same size feet. Virginia had planted these amazing seeds, and it was up to me to help them grow."

SPREADING 'ROOTS AND WINGS'

Lee has nurtured Tanner's basic tenets of modern dance instruction: roots, strong training in the fundamental art forms of dance, combined with wings to nurture creativity and imagination. "In our program, we attempt to create beautiful and disciplined technicians, but we also give students the ability to choreograph and to understand the aesthetics of dance," Lee explains. "We teach a student about the elements of dance—space, time, and energy—and also train the body as an instrument in strength, flexibility, and endurance. Modern dance is much like ballet, except that Tanner also encouraged beauty from within, Lee recalls, and she resisted dressing students in adult costumes. Instead, young dancers twirled and jumped, pointed and flexed, in 'Ginny' gowns, yards of dotted swiss that resembled short nightgowns. The style remains synonymous with the VTCDP.

"The greatest gift you can give a child is the gift of creative process," Lee says. "I grew up in the dance company and had the opportunity as a high school student to perform on tour and to take classes with leaders in modern dance. To be acclaimed by adults was an incredible and affirming experience for me as a young dancer."

Creative Dance Program (VTCDP) and artistic director of The Children's Dance Theatre (CDT) at the University of Utah, Salt Lake City. Lee also serves as an adjunct assistant professor in the University's Modern Dance Department. Her multiple contributions and outstanding achievements were recognized in 1998, when she received the Madeleine Award for Distinguished Services to the Arts and Humanities.

Lee credits her accomplishments to the inspiration of Virginia Tanner, who founded the creative dance program that bears her name in 1949. Lee's relationship with the brilliant and innovative Tanner spanned the decades—beginning when Lee was a four-year-old dance student, continuing as she performed professionally with the Contemporary Dance Theatre in Ohio and with the Moveable Feast Dance Company and Margaret Jenkins Company in San Francisco, and extending even beyond Tanner's death in 1979.

"The day before Virginia died, she asked me if I was ready for this," says Lee of her succession to program director. "I told her I was, and I assured her that she had given the entire staff the gifts we needed. We had all grown up in her family of dance.

"For a while, I wondered if I could really fill her shoes. But then I realized I didn't have the same size feet. Virginia had planted these amazing seeds, and it was up to me to help them grow."

SPREADING 'ROOTS AND WINGS'

Lee has nurtured Tanner's basic tenets of modern dance instruction: roots, strong training in the fundamen-

express yourself through movement, you gain a 'can-do' sense of self," Lee adds. "You feel honored, because you realize you can make a difference and, through your dance, you have something very interesting to say."

Spreading the message of dance has always been a priority for Lee, and her first steps as director focused on expanding the board of directors and numbers of scholarships. Board members describe Lee as "... a unique combination of astute business person, creative artist and performer, and very warm caregiver," and, "...positive without being syrupy, and strict in a good way. . . . an instructor who works with the spirit of the child."

Currently, about 1,500 students, from toddlers to adults, are enrolled in the VTCDP. Children's Dance Theatre (CDT) is the program's performance counterpart, with a total of 250 students accepted through auditions. Internationally acclaimed, CDT performs yearly for more than 40,000 Utahans, as well as audiences in places such as Finland and Malaysia. The company also performs in rural schools, conducts teacher and community workshops, and teaches dance classes in schools and community settings.

Community outreach is a VTCDP cornerstone. True to Tanner's firm faith in the inherent beauty of all children and the use of movement as an avenue for creative expression, Lee expanded the program to satellite locations, including several at-risk schools. The outreach—which currently encompasses about 500 scholarship programs—was recognized in 1993 with a Governor's Award in the Arts.

"It's very simple," Lee says. "If children can't come to us, we go to them. We need to keep trying harder to open doors for diverse groups of kids. For many, dance is a new way for them to communicate—maybe the only way through which they can truly express themselves without biases or stereotypes getting in the way."

"It's also a way for teachers to see another side of their students and perhaps gain a new understanding of the nature of that student."

Under Lee's guidance, the special populations dance program also provides weekly on-site dance classes to children recuperating from surgery at Shriner's Hospital for Crippled Children; provides classes in Salt Lake and Ogden at the Utah School for the Deaf and Blind; and brings physically and mentally challenged students to the dance studio for classes. A geriatric class at a Salt Lake City Alzheimer's facility shares the joy of dance with the elderly.

Housed primarily in a modest barracks building at the University of Utah, the VTCDP doubles as a teacher-training laboratory for students in dance, educational studies, physical therapy, and physical education. It is staffed by eight full-time faculty members and a part-time staff of 37. Lee describes the program's relationship with the University as "symbiotic," adding that full integration with the college was an important achievement. In addition to providing space for the VTCDP, the University lends fund-raising assistance through the campus's central development office, registration through the division of continuing education, and numerous administrative and outreach functions. Creative dancers also provide entertainment at many University functions.

"There really is a revolving door between Tanner and the Modern Dance Department," Lee says. "Many teachers at the Tanner school started as students here, went to the University of Utah to study Modern Dance, and then completed the circle by returning to the Tanner school to teach."

"To see all of this really grow has been very rewarding," she reflects. "We have an incredibly hard-working team."

LESSONS TO LIVE BY

Discipline and camaraderie are driving forces of dance, Lee believes, and each imparts lifetime lessons. "Dance gives you the discipline to work through something that's not easy, and the ability to problem solve," she says. "Dancers develop an amazing sense of family and group, along with the joy of supporting others. You work together at something remarkable, and you strive to take yourself—and the group—to a level of excellence."

Much like her Theta experience, Lee adds. She recalls the strong senses of unity, adventure, and excitement that characterized her pledge class—seventeen charter members of Delta Lambda. "We all came together to make it work, and we had tremendous support from the Fraternity," recalls Lee, who served as chapter president her senior year. "It was an exciting time, and we cared so tremendously for the chapter. There was no track record, so we just tried to achieve the best of everything. Theta truly nurtured the individual in each of us, and it was a wonderful fit for me."

The tradition remained strong until the chapter's dissolution about ten years ago. "Salt Lake City is a very traditional place," Lee explains. "Many residents are natives and when it comes to sororities, young women tend to pledge the same groups their mothers pledged. Most of our founding members moved away, and we lacked a strong local alumnae community."

"There were some wonderfully dynamic women that came out of our class, and my Theta friendships have carried me through many chapters of my life."

After dancing her way through college as a member of Orchesis and a performer with the University's Modern Dance Department, Lee graduated in 1968 with a degree in French. In 1969 she married her late husband, Jeff, and moved to Cincinnati, Ohio, where she earned her master of arts degree in French from the University of Cincinnati. Jeff Lee's position as an occupational medicine and industrial hygiene specialist with the Public Health Service prompted a move to Berkeley, Calif., and a turning point for Lee.

"I was finishing my master of arts degree at Mills College, but I wasn't performing. One night, I woke up at 3 a.m., turned on the light, moved the furniture in the bedroom, and just started dancing," she says, laughing. "I called Virginia the next day to find out who she might know in California.

"It hit me over the head and truly surprised me—I wanted to dance! I had always felt it was remarkable to be considered an artist at a very young age, but I never truly thought dance was something I could do with my entire life."

The steps continued to fall into place. Lee joined the Margaret Jenkins Dance Company in San Francisco and the Moveable Feast Dance Company in Berkeley. She also traveled and taught throughout the United States as a dance movement specialist for the National Endowment for the Arts' artists-in-schools program.

Lee's heart, however, stayed in Salt Lake City with her friend and mentor. In 1975, shortly after her first son,

"Dancers develop an amazing sense of family and group, along with the joy of supporting others. You work together at something remarkable, and you strive to take yourself—and the group—to a level of excellence."

Christopher, was born, Lee returned "home" and accepted Tanner's offer to teach in the studio. Her husband joined the University of Utah as a professor in the School of Medicine. "Virginia had been diagnosed with cancer by that time, but she wasn't about to give up on anything," Lee recalls. "When I think of the circumstances for women then, I realize she was truly ahead of her time.

She raised two children and managed to keep all the professional balls in the air long before it was considered "acceptable."

CHOREOGRAPHING HER NEXT CHAPTER

In many ways, her life today is reminiscent of the heady days on the University of Utah campus when Lee and her sixteen pledge sisters launched the Delta Lambda chapter. "Every day brings something new," Lee says. "I'm responsible for a vast amount of program development and grant writing, plus I have the opportunities to brainstorm our artistic works. I teach college courses in the University's modern dance department, and I also teach creative dance to little people."

Sons Christopher, 24, a graduate of the University of Colorado at Boulder, and Alex, 15, a high school student, also are rooted in dance. "We've performed and toured together," Lee says. "Dance has given us a special relationship, wonderful opportunities, and a unique means of communication."

Dance has helped heal as well, soothing the trio after husband Jeff's death in June 1998 from complications of Hodgkin's disease. The loss was devastating, says Lee, but the outpouring of support—from Theta and the dance community—was overwhelming.

"It's been a long journey," she admits, "and learning to accept help was very humbling. When Jeff died, Theta women from all over the country flew here, and it was astonishing to feel these incredible arms around me. And every Monday night for almost a year, the families in the Children's Dance Theatre provided dinner.

"You do your best to have a positive attitude," Lee adds. "But for a while, a sense of future was the hardest thing for me—everything seemed so up in the air. I'm starting to get that energy back now, which is wonderful. It panicked me when I didn't feel it."

When she speculates on the next five or ten years, Lee's tempo is brisk. Topping the agenda is the hope for a new, expanded facility to house the VTCDP. She'd also like to author a history of the program so it can be replicated throughout the country. Personally, Lee talks of completing her Ph.D., taking a sculpture class, or even living in Europe for a while.

"At some point, I'll step out of this position, and give it to someone else with tremendous energy," Lee says. "Like all stages in life, I know there will always be something else amazing coming just around the corner." ■

Chapter Goals, Plans, and Successes

Editor's note: In each spring issue of The Magazine, we publish short articles written by college chapter editors. These articles are compiled into a feature—On Campus—that is intended to give readers a sense of what life is like for Theta collegians across the continent. This year, thirteen college editors wrote articles inspired by this question: Where does your chapter want to be tomorrow?

CARING ABOUT COMMUNITY

The 1999-2000 school year got off to a rousing start for the women of the Beta Chapter on the Bloomington campus of Indiana University. We participated in several major philanthropic events in the fall months, raising awareness and funding for several community-related events.

We held our second annual Wingin' It for CASA wing-eating contest in mid-October. The event raised hundreds of dollars for CASA and is establishing a name for itself as its popularity grows each year.

Another proud Beta accomplishment this fall was our involvement in the ninth annual Dance Marathon. Participants spent 36 continuous hours on their feet in order to raise funds for the Ryan White Hospital in Indianapolis. Not only is it the third largest student-run philanthropic event in the nation, but it was also begun by Beta alumna Jill Stewart. We were proud to have more than thirty women participate in this year's marathon by raising more than $6,000 chapter-wide. These women contributed to a record-breaking event total of $315,000! By the end of the event, Thetas felt exhausted but thrilled to have contributed to such an inspiring cause.

TIP A HAT TO TIP-A-CANOE

A beautiful September day. A lake. A bunch of canoes. A good showing of the Cornell University community. A fraternity committed to its philanthropy. This is the essence of Tip-a-Canoe, Iota Chapter's annual service event to benefit CASA.

Tip-a-Canoe is a race across Beebe Lake on the north campus of Cornell University. We publicize the event in the Greek and non-Greek community, getting as many teams as possible to race in heats across the lake. The proceeds help CASA send children to summer camp, attend summer school, and have their own luggage to carry their possessions.

This year we had a record-breaking 42 boats. In addition to recruiting teams to participate in the event, Thetas devoted their time prior to the event as well, setting up information tables and obtaining community sponsors. Our sisterhood was in full force for the event, from working the food stand to being cheerleaders for the teams we recruited. Tip-a-Canoe brought together various campus organizations in a fun and worthwhile event. Most importantly, the local affiliation of CASA, the Ithaca Citizens Concerned for Children Program, benefited greatly by our fund-raising efforts—we raised close to $1,000. We were very pleased with the outcome and expect next year's event to be bigger and better.

AΣ/Washington State

AN EXCITING RETURN

The members of the Alpha Sigma Chapter at Washington State University returned to school and a number of exciting surprises. Not only was our new chapter room under final construction (complete with air-conditioning), but the living room had also been redone, including a new paint job and a fireplace. There were new beds on the sleeping porch and our parking lot had been re-vamped to create two new parking spaces. Another surprising improvement was the decoration of our phone booths by the 1999 new member class. For their class project, the new members came to the house for a day and enjoyed a sisterhood retreat while decorating the phone booths with themes such as pansies, stars, kites, and Theta.

Even though we were all excited about the improvements to our house, Alpha Sigmas remained involved in the Greek System and the community. In the 1999 fall semester, we competed in a number of philanthropic events. We also competed in the Washington State Homecoming competition with Pi Kappa Alpha, placing second overall and first in the Greek System. Our community involvement included Adopt-a-Highway, where a number of Thetas go out and clean up a stretch of road on Highway 26. We participated in My Family Night, where Thetas babysit children while their parents attend meetings, and many of us marched in the "Take Back the Night" march.

As a chapter, we held our annual events such as Date Dash with Delta Chi and Kite-Key with Kappa Kappa Gamma, as well as our family Christmas night and winter formal in December.

BZ/Oklahoma State

ROCKING FOR CASA

The Beta Zeta Chapter at Oklahoma State University presented Mikki Couch, the executive director of CASA in Stillwater, Okla., with a monetary gift of more than $5,700 in mid-November.

We held our first back-to-school fund-raiser this year with hopes of raising more money than in previous years for our local CASA chapter. The event, "Theta Rocks the CASA," was a two-band concert held at Eskimo Joe's Outback, with all proceeds going directly to CASA. Tickets were sold for $4 in advance and $5 at the door. We had T-shirts made to wear on campus prior to the event to help promote participation from students and sold more than 100 of these shirts at the concert.

"We are proud of this new event and the support we received from the OSU student body," said Kimber Blanton, vice-president public relations. "We plan to continue to build on the event and make it an annual back-to-school fund-raiser for CASA."

Mikki Couch explained, "The money will go to train and recruit CASA volunteers to represent children that are neglected and abused. Thetas have supported CASA since 1991, and there have been many years this CASA chapter could not have continued without their support."

"Theta Rocks the CASA" is part of Beta Zeta's commitment to strengthening the relationship between our chapter and the Stillwater CASA program. This year's event was a lot of fun, as well as a huge success, drawing a crowd of more than 1,100 students. We plan to make next year's event even better.

JAMMING THROUGH THE FALL

Greetings from the ladies of the Beta Nu Chapter at Florida State! We were extremely busy throughout this fall semester with fun-filled events from Homecoming week to our annual Theta Jam. To kick off the school year in August, we had a wonderful week of new member recruitment in which 47 amazing girls pledged Theta. We are so proud! In October, Homecoming was a huge success, as usual, as we celebrated our theme, "Trick or Treat, We Can't Be Beat," with our partners, the gentlemen of Kappa Alpha. Also in October, we celebrated the seventy-fifth anniversary of Beta Nu. On October 18 we hosted a special brunch at our house, which many alumnae attended. In December we held our first Theta Jam, which benefits CASA. Theta Jam is a three-on-three basketball tournament in which many students from across campus show off their skills. It was a huge success this year for both Beta Nu and CASA!

A SMALL KITE SOARS HIGH

This year, as always, the sisters of Beta Psi at McGill University have been working hard to uphold the ideals of Kappa Alpha Theta. Although Beta Psi is remarkably small compared to most American chapters, we are no less committed or dedicated to academic achievement and community involvement.

Our chapter GPA currently stands at 3.01, and we hold weekly study sessions to encourage members to keep their grades sky-high. The fall semester brought about our annual bike-a-thon, which profits the Montreal Neurological Institute, as well as a campaign to raise money for the palliative care center of a local hospital. We have also been holding monthly information sessions on various medical issues, including ovarian and breast cancers, diabetes, and HIV.

We were awarded third place in the fall semester's Greek Week competition and have initiated five phenomenal new members.

Our chapter of 24 sisters is the largest sorority on campus, and we are committed to raising awareness and eliciting interest for the Greek system in Canada. Unfortunately, we are not met with the enthusiasm and positive reinforcement our brothers and sisters south of the border enjoy. However, the sisters of Beta Psi work hard to dispel the negative image of Greek-letter organizations through academic excellence and a strong and positive image on campus and in the community at large. We are also strongly represented at the Panhellenic level and are very involved in an effort to remodel our recruitment system to better fit the reality of Greek life at McGill. All in all, the women of Beta Psi, although limited in numbers, are surely not so in the Theta spirit.

1 Alpha Sigma members Megan Smalley, Melissa Shaub, Lori Cole, Madeline Moores, and Maren Kampfer posed during the Washington State's 1999 homecoming street fair.

2 Campus-wide participation in their Tip-a-Canoe fund-raiser helped the Iota Chapter at Cornell raise money for CASA.

3 Iris Saleh, Kara Deatrich, Amanda Meyer, and Christina Cortez, all Zeta Upsilon/UT Dallas, participated in a campus service project.

ΓΘ/Carnegie Mellon CELEBRATING SISTERHOOD

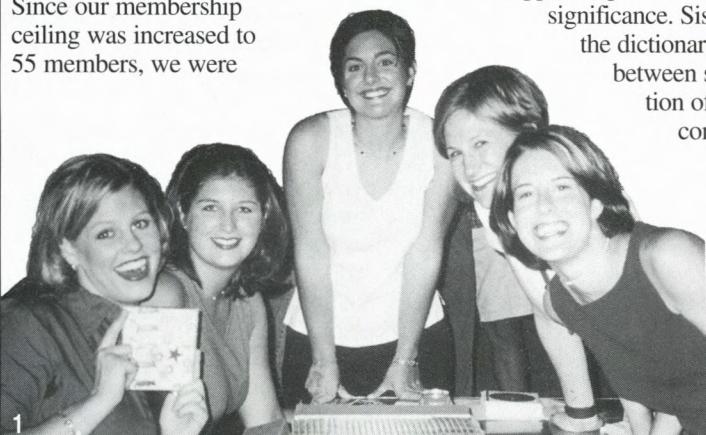

The fall semester for the Gamma Theta chapter was great. We couldn't be happier with the results of formal recruitment this year. Since our membership ceiling was increased to 55 members, we were able to initiate 18 enthusiastic new members, making Gamma Theta bigger and stronger than ever!

We had a full schedule of service, social, and sisterhood activities this fall. We held our annual "Mr. Fraternity Pageant," raising more than $2,800 for the Ohio Lung Association in honor of our late sister Karen Johnson. We enjoyed meeting Theta alumnae at Carnegie Mellon's "55 Years of Sisterhood" celebration and were proud that one of our sisters was chosen to give the keynote speech at this campus-wide event. All in all, it has been a fun semester full of Theta dedication and sisterly bonding for Gamma Theta. —Holly Wasilowski

ΔK/LSU DEFINING TRUE SISTERHOOD

The word sisterhood has always been especially important to the sisters of Kappa Alpha Theta. Recently, the Delta Kappa Chapter has discovered its true significance. Sisterhood is defined in the dictionary as "a bond between sisters; or an association of women united in a common interest." We believe it is what brightens our days and makes our hearts feel happiness. Each day, we make each other's lives a little easier and a little better. Sisterhood means a smile, a hug, and, most of all, a feeling of love from a sister.

The Delta Kappa Chapter has been delighted to accept the Sisterhood Award for the past two years. This prestigious award is presented to the Greek organization that exemplifies outstanding sisterhood and loyalty in all their endeavors. It is sponsored by the Order of Omega, a highly respected group of leaders chosen from the Greek community. Each fraternity and sorority nominates a chapter that they feel is deserving of this honor. We were overwhelmed with joy to be recognized as the recipient out of sixteen fraternities and ten sororities. We have full faith that our love and devotion to Kappa Alpha Theta will continue to be admired and hope to achieve this honor again in the future.

I felt even prouder to be a Theta this past semester when our chapter came together after the unexpected loss of a sister. This difficult time provided us with an opportunity to further strengthen our bond of sisterhood by supporting each other. Not only do we laugh and smile together, we wipe away each other's tears and feel our sisters' sorrows. We have full faith that this strong bond of sisterhood will stay alive for future members of Kappa Alpha Theta to experience. I hope that all Greek women are able to feel as much love from their sisters as I do from mine. Through good times and bad, our chapter has proven that sisterhood means a great deal more than what Mr. Webster defines.

ΔΣ/Ball State PANNING FOR GOLD

The Delta Sigma Chapter started its fall semester with a bang! After a month of practices and two weekends of recruitment parties, 21 new members were welcomed with open arms. We had a chance to get to know the new members through modules and new member activities, such as a trip to Indianapolis to visit Headquarters during the overnight retreat.

In October, we hosted our first Gold Rush. Students could pay one dollar to "pan" for gold (prizes) out of a plastic swimming pool filled with sand, and baked goods were also sold. Through the rain, Thetas stood outside to tell students about CASA and encourage their participation in Gold Rush. More than $200 was raised for CASA.

Three sisters (Ariel Knobbe, Dawn Swain, and Stefanie Szpak) were on the homecoming royalty court, and the Theta and Zeta Beta Tau float received second place in the homecoming parade. Also, twelve sisters were inducted into Golden Key, an honorary organization for juniors and seniors who demonstrate high academic achievement.

A LITTLE IMAGINATION AND NO ALCOHOL

The Epsilon Eta Chapter has worked diligently to make its alcohol-free social and philanthropic events both inventive and inclusive to accommodate our small, close-knit campus. This fall, we incorporated both social and philanthropic aspects into a block party during which the 300 girls from all three sororities on campus had dinner together. Each sorority provided a different part of the meal, and everyone circulated from house to house. Each girl brought school supplies to donate locally as the price of admission. Also, late last spring, we hosted our first Jail'n'Bail. Students and faculty were able to arrest one another throughout the day, and those who were arrested were held at the Theta house. To get out of jail, they had to find someone to bail them out or bail themselves out. Not only was it a fun day, but we were also able to raise a large amount of money for charity.

Just before Halloween, we hosted our annual Theta Fireside, which takes place each year in the first-floor lounge of historic Breckenridge Hall. This event is a campus-wide favorite, and we always have a large turnout. Everyone crowds together with the lights out and listens to ghost stories told mainly about old Centre buildings, including Breckenridge Hall. We always invite a certain faculty member who was involved in many of the ghost stories, along with the president of the college or a professor to speak, and students from all walks of campus life attend. We also had our first karaoke party, and everyone in attendance had a fantastic time.

Events like these help to bring our sorority closer together and establish our place as a responsible and cooperative part of the college community. As a chapter, we see ourselves as a group of intelligent, sophisticated, and responsible young women. That is also how we see our chapter tomorrow—proving to our campus and community that our sorority is more than just a social club, but a group of strong individuals uniting to improve the community in which we live.

STRIVING TO GROW, LEARN, AND EXCEL

Where does our chapter want to be tomorrow? This question is fairly easy for me to answer because our chapter is so new. We have many goals for which to strive. We do take pride in many things, such as our service program. We have been extremely lucky the last two years to have as outstanding service chairmen Eunice Doehring and Kornelija Numic. Doehring developed an incentive program that helps foster increased member participation in philanthropic events and CASA fund-raisers. The program consists of four teams (Red Pansy, Yellow Pansy, Pink Pansy, and Purple Pansy) competing to accumulate the highest number of points per semester. Points are awarded for participation in Theta philanthropic events, CASA fund-raisers, UTD service projects, and miscellaneous community service projects. She also developed the "Comet Classic Bike Rally," where all proceeds that are raised go directly to CASA. This was a fun way to get the community involved in Theta and CASA. Numic has done a wonderful job keeping these programs and others going, as well as letting everyone know of upcoming service opportunities.

We know that our service program is good, and we also know that with each year it should grow. As Thetas, the idea of self-improvement will be applied to everything that we do and everywhere we go. In the back of our minds we will always be asking ourselves, "Where do we want to be tomorrow?"

—Nicole Baker

A TRADITION OF SERVICE

"What do you want to be when you grow up?" is a common question asked of all children when they are young. The same question might apply to a young sorority chapter being asked, "Where does your chapter see itself in the future?" Being a member of the Zeta Chi chapter at Johns Hopkins University is like growing up all over again, but as sisters. With only two alumnae classes, we are still getting on our feet. We feel that there are many things upon which to improve and also simply to institute.

We view service as one of the most important things that we can do as a chapter to contribute to both our community and our national cause (CASA). Already we have branched out into the area surrounding our university and tried to lend a helping hand to those in need. We have participated in such events as Race for the Cure and a community walk for the homeless. I think, however, that the most rewarding service project we have participated in is the leadership of a Girl Scout Troop in a nearby inner-city area. The girls in this program look up to all of the sisters, and there is truly a reward in seeing them achieve such things as earning badges. On Thursday afternoons we offer them an alternative to hanging on the streets, as well as an escape from some of their much harsher communities for a little while.

So where does our chapter want to be in the future? I think most of my sisters would agree on the fact that we hope to come back as alumnae and see these girls graduate from college and move on to bigger and better things. Seeing the tradition of service continue from class to class is definitely important to our chapter, and we hope to see it continue well into the future.

Celebrating Kappa Alpha Theta

Editors from 12 alumnae chapters and clubs share how their groups celebrate Founders Day. Whether the celebrations are elaborate or simple, a good time is always had by all.

Chicago Northwest Suburban Alumnae Chapter

VARIED SETTINGS KEEP TRADITION FRESH

Each December, formal invitations are sent out to the 50- and 70-year Thetas in our northwest suburban area of Chicago, as well as to all of the chapter's active members. A Founders Day committee plans the festivities. Although our normal monthly meetings are held on weeknights, our Founders Day meeting is a Saturday luncheon. We tend to alternate the scenery every year by rotating between restaurants, members' homes, and country clubs. This day is meant to be very special for the Thetas being honored. Each honored Theta who attends is given a special pansy or kite-related gift from our alumnae chapter. The luncheon wouldn't be complete without passing around a pansy-decorated basket to collect for the Friendship Fund.

Our group is fortunate to have alumnae of all ages, from a couple of years out of college to 50 years plus. As one of our 50-year Thetas commented last year, "I used to look at the 50-year Thetas and think about how old they were. Now here I am, and I don't feel that old."

And she isn't—these honored Thetas seem to be getting better and looking younger all the time! Founders Day is a special time to honor these special women, to reflect on what Theta means to us, how long we have been members, the special friendships that we have made, and to honor the Founders for creating this exceptional Fraternity.

Dallas Alumnae Chapter

75 YEARS AND COUNTING

The Dallas Alumnae Chapter observes Founders Day annually in January. Collegians from the Beta Sigma Chapter attend and entertain the group with some of the songs they use during member recruitment. Fifty-year Thetas are sent special invitations to attend and be recognized and presented with a special gift. Also, each year Dallas honors a Theta of the Year and two Twin Stars.

In 1999, Dallas celebrated with a special presentation of "75 Years of the Dallas Alumnae Chapter," given by former alumnae chapter president Lana Ball Prather, Alpha Theta/Texas. There was also a presentation by Beverly Levy, executive director of the local CASA chapter.

Denver Alumnae Chapter

WINTER STORMS CAN'T KEEP THEM AWAY

Every year Thetas from the "Mile High City" of Denver turn out in record numbers to celebrate the history of Kappa Alpha Theta and honor some of our special members. Attending our annual festivities are more than 100 alumnae from the Denver metro area, collegians from area campuses, alumnae dignitaries, and representatives of the Denver Panhellenic Association. Considering the threat of winter storms every year, we have had a lot of luck making it to this traditional brunch every January.

Our morning begins with a social hour, where members have the opportunity to meet new alumnae in the area, greet collegians, and visit with friends. As we commence the formal brunch, a member provides a warm welcome by highlighting the rich history of our Fraternity and welcoming new faces to our chapter.

The most enjoyable part of our morning occurs after brunch, when we honor some of our special alumnae. Typically, we have more than a dozen 50-year Thetas in attendance, and every so often we will be honored with the presence of a 75-year Theta. We always introduce each woman with a short biography of her life and accomplishments. Each is then presented with a 50-year or 75-year pin commemorating her years as a Theta. This is by far the most pleasant part of the festivities. Many of the honorees may not have been involved with the Fraternity after college, but the glow on their faces as they are pinned is reminiscent of college freshmen receiving their first new member pins.

Lastly, we present to two of our members the Woman of the Year award and the Inspirational Theta award. The Woman of the Year award is open to nomination. A committee consisting of previous recipients then selects a candidate who has provided extraordinary service to the chapter and the community. The chapter as a whole, on the other hand, selects the Inspirational Theta. Due to the surprise nature of the awards, the presentations by the previous recipients are filled with emotion. There are many dedicated Thetas in this alumnae chapter who work hard to uphold the Fraternity's ideals. To honor two exceptional women out of so many is naturally an exciting moment.

Along with a collection for the Friendship Fund, an introduction of the new executive board, and group singing of Theta songs, our Founders Day brunch is a warm, fun-filled morning. Many look forward to it every year and will reserve their space several months ahead of time. Denver is known as a vibrant, friendly city, and this is certainly reflected in our Founders Day.

Hartford Alumnae Chapter

SHARING THE PAST AND THE FUTURE

The Hartford Alumnae Chapter celebrates Founders Day each year on a Saturday near the actual date. A brunch is held at a restaurant or club and is well attended by both alumnae and collegiate members from the University of Connecticut and Wesleyan University chapters.

Central to the day is a speaker, who addresses some topic of special Theta interest. In 1999 it was our own Cindy Snyder Lawler, Gamma Theta/Carnegie Mellon, who showed wonderful and awesome slides as she talked about her Appalachian Trail trek. This was a spiritual quest for Cindy, undertaken to rediscover the woman she was before embarking on a life as wife and mother. It came in the wake of the departure of her children into their own adult lives. It was also undertaken to foster and experience a closer relationship with God. As her fellow Thetas vicariously experienced Cindy's adventure, we learned, as Cindy had, that "The journey is the reward," whether over a trail through mountains or over a lifetime.

As part of the usual celebration, we honor any 50- or 75-year Thetas, who often comment on some aspect of their lives as Thetas. Most interesting to our younger members seems to be their discussion of what collegiate and fraternity life was like in "the olden days."

And so with good food, enthusiastic (and occasionally melodious) singing, reminders of our Kappa Alpha Theta heritage, and renewed friendships, the Hartford Alumnae Chapter celebrates Founders Day year after year!

Kansas City Alumnae Chapter ACCOMPLISHED THETA RECEIVES HONOR

Members of the Greater Kansas City Alumnae Chapter celebrated the 130th anniversary of Kappa Alpha Theta's founding on January 29th. During the celebration, 14 members were awarded their 50-year pins.

The prestigious Theta of the Year Award was presented by last year's winner, Diana Larson Smith, Kappa/Kansas. In her presentation speech, Smith explained that this year's winner has been a tireless community volunteer, concentrating on women's and children's issues, education, and the development of the Northland area. She was awarded an Up and Comer award by the Kansas City Business Journal in 1997, given a Distinguished Leadership Award by Kansas City Tomorrow, and the KC Spirit Award in 1996. She is the current president of the Women's Foundation of Greater Kansas City and was named Central Exchange's Woman of the Year. Along with all this activity, she has also been a rising star in the corporate world, currently holding the position of vice-president of investor relations and corporate communications at American Italian Pasta. Linda Doolin Ward, Alpha Mu/Missouri, was surprised with the Theta of the Year Award for the year 2000. Her family had secretly been invited to attend the event.

During the social time before and after the meeting, the 158 Thetas attending ate wonderful food, visited with former classmates, talked with old friends, and met new ones. A grand time was had by all!

Phoenix Alumnae Chapter OLD AND NEW MEMORIES

The Phoenix Alumnae Chapter traditionally celebrates Founders Day with all alumnae in the metropolitan area and with collegians at Arizona State University's chapter, Delta Epsilon. Special invitations are extended to 50- and 75-year Thetas, with about 1,400 Thetas being invited. We look forward to meeting and greeting anywhere from 150 to 200 sisters, seeing friends that we may not have seen since the last year's gathering.

Two years ago, we changed our format from a luncheon to a brunch. It is always held on a Saturday, to allow as many women to attend as possible. We have about half an hour of social time to visit and view scrapbooks highlighting activities from years past.

Our program requires about two hours, depending on whether or not we have a keynote speaker. The Founders Day message is read, followed by the introduction of our 50- and 75-year Thetas and the passing of baskets for the Friendship Fund. The president-elect of our alumnae chapter gives a report of our activities for the past year, as does the president of Delta Epsilon, allowing all to share in what we do as "Thetas for a Lifetime"! Our collegians are recognized for their scholarship achievements, and new alumnae officers for the following year are introduced. If you find yourself in Phoenix, come join us!—Paula Swartz, FI/Kentucky

Raleigh/Durham/Chapel Hill Alumnae Chapter

TABLE FOR TWO, PLEASE

The Raleigh/Durham/Chapel Hill Alumnae Chapter celebrates Founders Day with an annual luncheon. Last year, the luncheon was held at Croaisdale Country Club in Durham, NC. The guest speaker was Sue Blair, a member of Grand Council from 1986 to 1992. By offering to pay for one extra meal, participants could Adopt-an-Active, allowing sisters from the Beta Rho Chapter at Duke University to participate. One year, in addition to the luncheon, members took a cake to a 75-year Theta who was in a nursing home.

Rockford Alumnae Chapter SPIRIT AND SISTERHOOD

Founders Day is the favorite annual occasion of the Rockford (Ill.) Alumnae Chapter. Gathering in a member's beautiful home sparks memories of our college days in our chapter houses. Our traditional scripture, grace, and tribute to our founders and new 50-year Thetas is always enjoyed. We also proudly vote on the local and national organizations to receive donations from our dedication fund-raising projects. Of course, delicious gourmet food is always a special part of every event!

We are fortunate to have a delightful, unique group of all ages who genuinely enjoy one other and happily take their turns to lead, support, and have fun. Amazingly, 45 percent of our area Thetas choose to pay dues and enjoy our various programs at different times throughout the year. We're continuing to experience "Theta spirit" and sisterhood.

Sacramento Valley Alumnae Club RICH IN DIVERSITY AND GENEROSITY

The Sacramento Valley Alumnae Chapter, which was formed in 1956, became a club in early 1997. Since Zeta Nu's installation at UC Davis in 1992, we have celebrated Founders Day at a local country club with their members. They seem to enjoy meeting the alumnae and entertaining us with their songs. Their special recruitment song is sung with their own words to "Memory," from the musical Cats.

Three of our members collect Theta items during the year, which we raffle at the end of the luncheon. The proceeds, with added donations, go toward the Ruthie Langstaff Scholarship at Zeta Nu. This scholarship goes to a member who has applied for it, is in need of financial assistance, has been selected by the advisory board, and has a good grade point average.

Our group is diverse, with members who own their own businesses, one-million-dollar real estate sellers, advertising executives, state government workers, teachers, volunteers, decorators, a landscape architect, a travel agent, a bank executive, graduate students, and some homemakers. Our members range from recent graduates to 90 years of age. Our meetings are "events."

—Ruthie Langstaff, Iθ/Carnegie Mellon

St. Louis Alumnae Chapter TIME-HONORED TRADITION

St. Louis's style is most definitely a blend of tradition and innovation as we seek to honor our heritage and celebrate our modern vitality. Until 1999, a great many St. Louis-area Thetas anticipated a festive Saturday luncheon at one of the local country clubs. In 1999, we chose a Sunday afternoon "high tea" format as a backdrop for our gathering. Guest presenters have often attended the event. One well-received program featured a fashion show of vintage clothing from 1870 to the present. Of course, donations to the Friendship Fund are a must on the agenda. On occasion, the setting has included a pansy boutique, a silent auction, or a station for ordering flats of pansies.

The recognition of 50- and 75-year Thetas is a particularly special moment. Introductions are made and corsages and other tokens are presented. In 1999, our honored guests received souvenir booklets, which the committee had prepared, summarizing historical events of 1949 and milestones in Theta history throughout the years. The Kappa Alpha Theta website was the source of the excellent Fraternity material. Also, the seniors from our local collegiate chapter, Alpha Iota, are introduced to the group, and a special "senior service" is presented for them as our soon-to-be newest alumnae.

Toast and candle lighting combine with singing, the Theta of the Year Award, and other precious traditions to complete an afternoon of sentimental sisterhood.

San Mateo County Alumnae Chapter A HOUSE FOR THETA'S FUTURE

This year, the San Mateo County Alumnae Chapter joined other San Francisco Bay-area Theta groups to celebrate Founders Day on January 29, 2000. Members of the Phi deuteron Chapter at Stanford University and 50- and 75-year Thetas were guests of honor. Members attended a luncheon in the Palo Alto, Calif., area and then adjourned to an open house at the new Stanford University Theta House on campus. The program for the luncheon included honoring 50- and 75-year Thetas as well as a speaker from CASA.

In September of 1998, Phi deuteron was one of only two sororities chosen by the university to be housed on campus—a first for sororities since 1944. This Founders Day provided a unique opportunity for local alumnae to visit the "new" Theta house on the Stanford campus.

Washington, DC/Suburban Maryland Alumnae Chapter

REMINDERS OF THE TRUE BONDS OF SISTERHOOD

Every year the Washington, DC/Suburban Maryland Alumnae Chapter celebrates Founders Day with the Northern Virginia Alumnae Chapter at a luncheon. The chapters take turns hosting the event. Both chapters honor their 50- and 75-year Thetas, and each chapter encourages the collegians from District IV to attend and speak to the group about their chapters' accomplishments. Through donations from the Washington, DC, Alumnae Chapter, four to five collegians from the University of Maryland are able to attend Founders Day each year.

The Washington, DC, alumnae like to vary their entertainment—a speaker from Fraternity Headquarters, a video on Theta life, an area Theta celebrity. This year Christy Waters, Zeta Tau/Delaware, spoke about what Theta meant to her during her long, illness-related hospital stay, away from all of her college friends. She received hundreds of cards, as well as balloons, teddy bears, and flowers from Thetas all over the United States. Christy told the audience that she has a strong faith in God, medicine, and the knowledge that the bonds of sisterhood truly exist.

This year's Founders Day celebration honored two 75-year Thetas, Eilene Galloway, Alpha Iota/Washington-St. Louis, and Rose Preuss Sowder, Beta Theta/Idaho. Two of Rose Sowder's three Theta daughters and a granddaughter attended with her. The Washington, DC, Alumnae Chapter also sold items from the Pansy Peddler, signed up new and old Thetas at their membership table, and encouraged all attending to join the chapter's upcoming events. Everyone contributed to the Friendship Fund as well.

Recruitment Reference Board/Authorized Recruitment Representative Comments

All About References

Tell a college chapter about a young friend who would make a good Theta!

WHAT TO SEND: Complete information about the potential new member's qualifications is essential, and a picture of her is highly desirable. Get both from her or her family if she is a friend of yours. A member must not call or visit a potential new member or her family unknown to her to request information or a picture.

WHERE TO SEND IT: Send references to the potential new member's hometown recruitment reference board chairman (RRBC). If there is no reference board, send references to the authorized recruitment representative (ARR). If there is no ARR, send references to the reference chairman for the college chapter the young woman is attending.

REMEMBER THETA AND NPC GUIDELINES: Once membership selection has begun, alumnae and collegiate members from other campuses must not contact potential new members, and alumnae may not contact the college chapter to inquire about the progress of member recruitment. Such calls must be addressed to the chapter's membership adviser. Alumnae shall not receive any information about the status of a potential new member or bid list information. Alumnae are also prohibited from sending food or gifts to the chapter on behalf of a potential new member. Breaking Panhellenic rules may cause the chapter to be penalized.

KAPPA ALPHA THETA FOUNDATION

1999 Annual Report and Donor List

Theta Dollars Working for Thetas

In 1998-99, the
Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation ...

... distributed more than $350,000 in scholarships to 124 outstanding Theta scholars;

... granted more than $220,000
to help fund educational and leadership programs for Theta collegians and alumnae;

... through the Friendship Fund, presented almost $20,000 to Theta alumnae experiencing financial hardship;

... awarded more than $1 million in total grants.

The Kappa Alpha Theta
Foundation is a leader in the Greek world, distributing more money through grant making than any other fraternal organization.

The Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation continues to lead the way among Greek organizations in the amount of dollars distributed through grant making. Thanks to your generous donations, the Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation awarded more than $1 million in grants in 1999! We awarded $354,220 to more than 124 bright Thetas for scholarship grants, and more than $220,000 in grants was awarded to the Kappa Alpha Theta Fraternity in support of educational programs, like Talking About Alcohol, speakers for district leadership conferences and Grand Convention, archives development, and the traveling educational leadership consultants. Another grant, totaling almost $75,000, was distributed to 56 undergraduate Thetas for leadership training at the LeaderShape Institute in Champaign, Illinois. The Foundation continues to support our national philanthropy, CASA, with an annual $60,000 grant and a nearly $220,000 grant to local CASA programs nationwide.

The Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation was established in 1960 to provide an avenue for the acquisition and disbursement of contributions to promote and fulfill the educational and philanthropic goals of Kappa Alpha Theta

This year the Foundation has grown to more than $17.5 million in assets with almost 150 educational trust funds pooled for investments. The Foundation has professionals to help manage our assets and endowment—so we can keep serving Kappa Alpha Theta for a lifetime!

We are approaching the 40th Anniversary of the Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation, and our success and longevity is due to you, our 12,000 donors. The Foundation trustees and I would like to say thank you for your continued support and loyalty to the Foundation and to the Fraternity.

Loyally,

Marilyn C. Lynch

How do my contributions benefit Kappa Alpha Theta and the Foundation?

The Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation is proud to sponsor several programs. These programs use either restricted or unrestricted donations. Annual fund dollars are extremely important to the financial well-being of the Foundation and, indirectly, the Fraternity. These monies are spent on the Fraternity grant, CASA grant, individual leadership grants, and operational expenses.

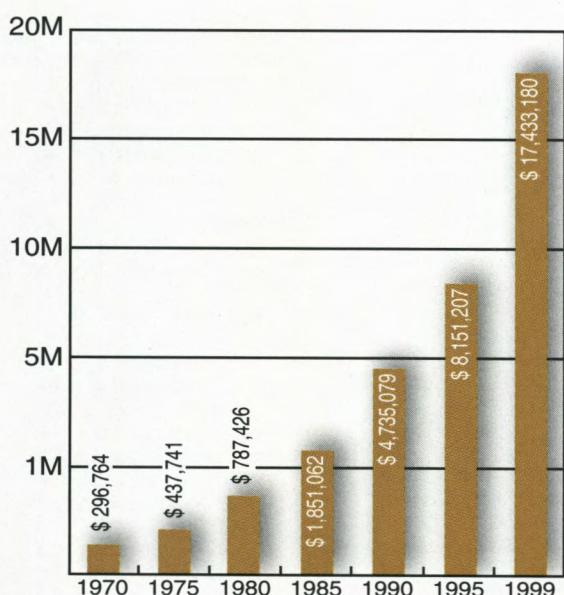

Each year, the Fraternity is granted almost $250,000 to use for educational and leadership expenses such as the ELC program, speakers for district leadership conferences and Grand Convention, archives, a risk management seminar for consultants, and the Talking About Alcohol program presented to college chapters. Since Kappa Alpha Theta adopted CASA as its national philanthropy, $60,000 per year is granted to the national organization. Leadership grants are given to collegians each year to develop their personal leadership potential and, in turn, strengthen their chapters.

Restricted grants are given in the form of educational trust funds/scholarships, named trusts, Friendship Fund gifts and gifts to Heartsprings, formerly known as the Institute of Logopedics. Endowments are set up according to the wishes of the donor. A scholarship or named trust can be established to honor or memorialize a person or group. The Foundation is honored to sponsor the largest scholarship program among all Greek organizations. In 2000, more than $350,000 will be awarded. Almost $50,000 in named trusts will also be given to either individuals or Theta groups for leadership or non-degree educational purposes. District leadership grants were initiated through this grant program to help advisory board members attend the leadership meetings in their districts. Friendship Funds are used to help Theta alumnae in severe financial need.

The Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation was established to be the fund-raising arm of the Fraternity. All donations made to the Foundation are tax-deductible, and this benefits the individual donor. The goal of the Foundation is to return as much of this money as possible to our membership through its grant-making capabilities. The programs endorsed by the Foundation Board of Trustees were put in place to do just this. Without the generous donations of individuals, alumnae chapters and clubs, and collegiate chapters, none of this would be possible. Thank you for your continued support of the Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation!
